Chasing Rainbow
in 1984

Chasing Rainbow in 1984

Once upon a Bali day, David Bowie's dreamy soft-summer style of the 1980s blended with the island interior seamlessly, making him a natural element of the tropics. Flaming backdrop of endlessly ripening fruits and flowers; the gentle, sparkling and ethereal become a curious contrast and unique daring.

As we go back in time, we found ourselves recreating this 80s island fantasy. Bits of lace and sheen of leotard adorned with golden charms bracelets of our analogue heritage: gleaming cassette tape and electric guitar of some sort. Neon mix rainbow string interlacing with golden chains and dangling star-set cyan stones, arrays of purple rain like beads... all paying tribute to the era's legendary rock pop anthems. Each mystical piece is a nostalgic homage to the iconic sounds and styles that defined the decade: energetic, somehow simultaneously punk, classy, sweet & heartfelt.

Whether you're a Prince fan like me, a synth-pop artist or a classic rock devotee, our "Chasing Rainbow in 1984" collections celebrates the eclectic sounds and boldness of the 80s. It harmoniously fuses huge volt of materials, letting you express your sonic styles while creating our own universe of Jewel Rocks.
