ANNA PETER BRETON and ANETT BILICZKI

The NUBU Autumn/Winter 2026/27 collection was jointly created by Garam Judit, the brand's designer, and the designer assistant, Liza Borcsik.

The collection is inspired by the works of painter Anna Peter Breton and glass artist Biliczki Anett, whose artistic approaches shape the conceptual and material language of the collection.

The world of the collection is defined by natural materials, including wool fabrics of varying weights, mohair, and recycled silks and taffetas. The garments are shaped through hand-felting techniques, unique hand-painted surfaces, and organic forms. Soft, blurred color transitions and layered, landscape-like constructions create a visual experience that feels deeply connected to nature while remaining abstract.

Nature-inspired motifs appear not only in the details but also in the volume and texture of the silhouettes, forming a cohesive, richly layered narrative throughout the collection.
